

Where unspoiled wilderness and modern, sophisticated cities meet

New Zealand

From the tropical golden sand beaches of the North Island to the plunging, deep waters of Milford Sound at the foot of the South Island, to the bubbling thermal pools of Rotorua, this is a land of wild and vivid contrasts. You'll feel you are the first to discover these islands of calm, this safe haven of natural wonder.

See map of New Zealand
on back flap!

Wildlife

True nature-lovers feel drawn to this country of stark contrasts in habitat and wildlife. Spot New Zealand's unusual and protected flightless bird, the kiwi. Visitors and locals alike love to dolphin watch in the far North, while the beautiful Kaikoura Coast in the South Island is renowned for the pods of whales—giant sperm whales, humpbacks and even orcas.

Flight-Seeing

"Flight-see" New Zealand for a new and spectacular viewpoint. Small aircraft and helicopter tours are popular and wonderful ways to have a good look around.

Adrenalin-Fueled Adventures

Get your heart thumping with one of many adventure sports—on water, land or in the air. In Queenstown, take a jet boat for a spin, or give quad (4-wheel) biking a try. Like New Zealand's bungy-jump innovation, there's always an adventure awaiting!

Golfing

No other place offers more golf course land per person than New Zealand—a nation of golf-lovers with over 400 golf courses.

Taking Home a Piece of Us

Shopping in New Zealand offers a vast array of goods—from Maori crafts to the finest Merino designer wool suits.

Wining & Dining in New Zealand

Tasting a traditional Maori "Hangi"—food from an earthen oven heated with red hot stones—is a must. Dine on fresh scallops, whitebait and crayfish, or perennial favorite, New Zealand lamb. A perfect complement to any fine meal is one of New Zealand's award-winning Pinot Noirs, Chardonnays, Sauvignon Blancs or Rieslings—enjoy!

Places to Stay

New Zealand offers an outstanding choice of accommodation—from luxury lodges of international acclaim to city hotels and boutique B&Bs.

Fully Escorted & Mini Tours

An easy way to get around New Zealand is to take a fully escorted vacation with an expert guide or a mini tour with highlights of the North, South or West Coasts. All of our tours offer accommodation choices to suit your budget. Some tours include a self-drive option, providing a structured itinerary and the freedom to drive yourself.

Country-Farm Homestays

Farming is the lifeblood of New Zealand's economy. And it's an authentic experience to visit a working farm during your trip.

Auckland & Bay of Islands

From the cosmopolitan hub of Auckland to the expanse of 90-Mile Beach, Northland and Bay of Islands offer a mix of sailing, fishing, islands and beaches. Pages 96–98.

Rotorua & Taupo

And for quiet pleasure-seekers: luxury lodges around Rotorua and Taupo welcome you with warm hospitality. See pages 99–101.

Wellington, Marlborough & Nelson

This region is renowned for its creativity, countryside and extreme coastline.

An hour northeast of Wellington is the famous wine region of Martinborough. Then there's Wellington, New Zealand's capital, which boasts some of the country's finest galleries and museums, including Te Papa National Museum.

The next stop is across the Cook Strait to the northern tip of the South Island, via a 2½ hour cruise or scenic flight through the Marlborough Sounds. Next is Marlborough, another celebrated wine region. Nelson is home to the unique World of Wearable Arts.

See pages 110–111.

Mid South Island – Christchurch, Canterbury & The West Coast

New Zealand is a land of extremes and nowhere is this more obvious than in the middle of the South Island. On one coast is the verdant “garden city” of Christchurch. Ride a punt on the Avon River, glide over the Canterbury Plains in a hot air balloon, or visit the stunning Botanic Gardens. Head north to Kaikoura to see giant sperm whales, dusky dolphins, fur seals and other wildlife. The West Coast's World Heritage area offers some of nature's true miracles: glaciers, rainforests, blowholes and Pancake Rocks. Or for a trip you will never forget, take the TranzAlpine Express train across the Southern Alps—considered one of the world's top train journeys. See pages 102–103.

Queenstown & Fiordland

Around Queenstown, Lakes Wakatipu and Te Anau are picturesque places to kayak, jetboat and sail. Enjoy the adventure scene in Queenstown and try a jetboat ride, bungy jump or flight-seeing. At Milford Sound, prepare yourself for breathtaking scenery. See pages 104–105.

DAY 1: AUCKLAND—ROTORUA

Today starts with a short drive to Auckland’s waterfront. Board your yacht for a 1½-hour sail on Auckland’s sparkling Waitemata Harbour. Here’s a chance to take the helm, learn some sailing jargon, or just sit back, relax and enjoy the sea breeze. After the sail, head out of Auckland bound for Rotorua. Stop outside Rotorua for an activity that involves little 4x4 vehicles, lots of mud, sweaty palms and a luge! Enjoy a free evening exploring Rotorua. Overnight: Rotorua, Ventura Inn for 2 nights (L)

DAY 2: WHITE ISLAND

Travel to Whakatane, a small seaside town, known for forestry and dairy farming. Depart on your 30-mile launch ride to the active volcano, White Island. Don your gas mask and helmet and board the vessel that ferries you to the old wharf to learn about the forces that are twitching, belching and rumbling around you. The highlight is the hike to the crater rim to see steaming, boiling Crater Lake. Reboard the boat for lunch as you journey back to Whakatane. Tonight experience a formal Maori welcome onto a Marae. Be entertained with a Maori concert followed by a traditional Maori “Hangi.” Return to hotel. (B,L,D)

DAY 3: ROTORUA—TAIHAPE

Start the morning with a visit to the Rotorua Bathhouse museum to explore aspects of the Maori culture and nearby Wai-O-Tapu thermal reserve. Continue to Taupo, stopping at a thermal valley to see boiling mud pools, mineral terraces and steaming volcanic lakes and look at New Zealand’s longest river, the mighty Waikato, as it thunders through a narrow chasm forming the Huka Falls. A walk along the banks of the river offers nice views. It’s then on to River Valley Lodge, nestled beside the Rangitikei River, to relax and enjoy the peace and quiet of the lodge and its surroundings. Overnight: Taihape, River Valley Lodge (B,L)

DAY 4: TAIHAPE—PARAPARAUMU

The Rangitikei River is home to some high-class river rafting. Choose from two options: first, a sedate trip offers views of the spectacular gorges and cliffs, or second, get up close and personal with the river in the white water of the upper section. By mid afternoon, it’s back on the road for a relaxing drive south through rolling farmland to the coastal town of Paraparaumu. Overnight: Paraparaumu, Wrights by the Sea (B,L)

Head to the Upper Buller Gorge, stopping to view New Zealand’s longest Swing Bridge. Then travel along the spectacularly rugged west coast to the Nile River and the cave exploration. Begin with a walk up the bush-clad valley and enter the cave. Explore the underground world before floating downstream on tubes—an ideal way to view this amazing underworld. Travel to Punakaiki, home of the famous Pancake Rocks and a spectacular coastal walk. Overnight: Punakaiki Rocks Hotel (B,L)
