A Christmas Carol: Scrooge In Bethlehem

By Anna Laura Page and Jean Anne Shafferman Unison

Adapted from Charles Dickens' 19th century English story, A Christmas Carol, this delightful children's musical tells the story of Scrooge, the greedy, obsessed Bethlehem innkeeper who refuses shelter to Mary and Joseph on that first Christmas night. This charming musical is filled with seasonal scripture and English carols and hymns, and is recommended for grades K-8. The cast size and staging is highly flexible. The kit includes a director's book and 10 singer's editions. 20 minutes in length. Easy

It's A Wonder-FULL Life

By Pam Andrews and Luke Gambill Unison/2-Part

A group of kids have just finished their Christmas musical. While putting away the Christmas set, one child, Foster, begins complaining. He would rather forgo the manger and all the Christmas "stuff" to go home and open presents. Suddenly, Terrance appears... the children believe him to be Mr. T, the janitor. To show the real meaning of Christmas, Terrance talks to God asking Him to remove Christmas. Suddenly, the entire Christmas scene disappears. The Christmas tree now has no lights, the Christmas bell cannot ring, the Christmas Present is empty and the manger is missing from the nativity scene. The children realize Jesus is the reason for the season and that Christmas is Jesus. 45 minutes in length. Easy

Once Upon A Christmas Night

By Michael and Jill Gallina Unison

It is the very first Christmas Eve ever, and Stellar the smallest star of all, is dutifully doing her job of preparing the stars at Galaxy Productions for another bright and starry night. Super Nova and Grandioso, the two heads of stars at Galaxy Productions appear and announce that they have heard on the Greatest Authority that tonight is the night our Holy Savior will be born. They will be holding a "star search" to determine which star is worthy of lighting the sky above the manger on this, the greatest night of all. After many dramatic twists and turns we learn that through the love and light of God, we can all be the brightest and best! With the flexible cast size, minimal staging requirements, simple costuming and six songs, Once Upon A Christmas Light is sure to inspire your cast of shining stars and congregation with its profound message. The kit includes a reproducible director's/singer's edition and enhanced acc. CD.

The Christmas County Spelling Bee

Created by Celeste Clydesdale
Arr. by David T. Clydesdale

Unison/2-Part

"Wonderful Counselor." "Prince Of Peace." "Everlasting Father." Even a brief reflection on the names of Jesus brings power and strength to our faith. Celeste Clydesdale has centered her Christmas musical entirely around this theme. Set within the narrative of a lively spelling bee, this warm musical consists of nine delightful new songs, including the Michael W. Smith classic, Emmanuel. As the musical unfolds, the contestants learn more about the character and nature of our Savior. The teacher resource kit is available in two convenient formats. Both digital/CD-ROM and printed versions include lesson plans, activities and pre-planning material. Included on the instructional DVD are accompaniment videos for the songs The ABC's Of Praise and Prince Of Peace.

Lost At Christmas

Created by Dennis and Nan Allen

Emily is lost. Really lost. Abby never thought that the creepy girl from chemistry class would accept her invitation to a church party. But when Emily accepted, Abby agreed to give her a ride. Only...Abby forgot to pick Emily up. Now Emily is nowhere to be found, not at the police station, not at the mall, nowhere. Where is she? This musical for students has a message for everyone: Jesus came to earth to save everyone and not just those who look like they deserve it. There are ten speaking characters and a chorus. Chorus parts range from 2-Part doubling to some SATB. The playkit is a notebook containing full musical score, full script, production notes, demo CD and an accompaniment CD. Moderate

Destination Christmas

By Nan Allen

It's Christmas Eve. A bus leaves Dallas, Texas with a few passengers bound for New York City. With stops in Little Rock, Nashville and Roanoke, the bus picks up characters going to the Big Apple. When the blizzard of the season hits, all travel plans are rearranged and the whole bus load of passengers spend Christmas in...where else...Bethlehem, Pennsylvania! The tender message of the production is finally brought out in the words to a beloved Christmas carol... "The hopes and fears of all the year are met in Thee tonight." A one-act play. 45 minutes in length.
