Take a look at the doors opposite, and find your favourite style. The measurements beside each picture tell you all the sizes in which it's available. Sliding doors are sold in pairs.

Frames come in different heights and widths. Think about how big your space is, and the amount you need to store, then combine frames to create the ideal wardrobe. For a wardrobe with sliding doors, you will always need at least two frames, so the doors have somewhere to slide to! The free buying guide gives full details about the frames and ideas on how to combine them.

Think about your clothes, shoes, accessories and whatever else you want to keep in your wardrobe. Choose organisers to make everything easy to access. You can buy shelves and drawers in colours that will match your frames.
