NEW LOWER PRICE TKE/A

It's more than a kitchen.

It's the cake the four of you made together. The one that started off as a delicious batter that you couldn't help but lick off the spoon. The cake that turned your kitchen into a sugar- and flour-covered disaster zone. The one that was so I-can't-believe-we-made-this-ourselves good that it never made it past the kitchen counter and into the dining room.

It's more than a kitchen. It's the life you live there.

We work hard to design kitchens and all the little details that make life a little easier. The easy to clean kitchen doors. The durable benchtops. Fully-extendable drawers and adjustable dividers that make everything simple to find. Things like that really make us smile. We can even help you measure your room, deliver your kitchen and install it for you if you need a helping hand.

So instead of thinking about your kitchen, you can think about how much you love being in your kitchen.

▲ That didn't hurt, mum!

If children ruled the world, all dining tables would have soft, rounded corners. With PATRULL corner bumpers, we've done what we can to support them. Just apply the corner bumpers to whatever sharp edge you'll find - and tables and children will again be the best of friends.

PATRULL corner bumper $9.99/8pk

PATRULL hob guard $29.99 Reduces the risk of a child overturning hot pots on itself or getting its fingers burnt on hot plates. Stainless steel W59–95×D40, H14cm.

◄ Protected by stainless steel.

A hob guard keeps small children and hot hobs safely separated. Just make sure it's adjustable in width and easy to turn up against the wall, and you'll be just as comfortable by the hob as ever before.

Cabinets, drawers and shelves To ensure they're really durable we put the weight of enough dinner plates to feed your child's football team on an 80cm wide shelf and keep it there for a week.

Sinks If it's one thing a sink has to put up with, it's water. Stainless sinks are dipped into salt water to make sure there's no corrosion. And ceramic sinks are tested so they don't crack when you pour hot pasta water into them.

Kitchen fronts Breakfast, lunch and dinner. You open your cabinets many times each day. We hang 2kg on a door and then open and close it 200,000 times to ensure it stands years and years of everyday use.

Benchtops Your benchtop must stand hot plates and splashes of tomato sauce, so we drench it in water, oil and coffee and then we impact-test the top and edges to make sure they're durable. Excludes 'Custom Made' benchtops by Caesarstone® and Formica®.

Find out more about our free guarantees on page 66.

Taps You use the tap a lot. We test durability by turning it on and off 210,000 times. Then we switch from hot to cold another 140,000 times and make sure that there are no leaks.

Plan your work zones

By planning your kitchen into three distinct zones, you'll create a more natural, ergonomic workflow. It's what we call "the work triangle."

Cooking zone It's a good idea to consider both safety and ease when planning your cooking zone. When you place it near the sink, you'll avoid crossing the kitchen with hot pots and pans. And surrounding the cooking area with plenty of counter space will help keep things flowing smoothly.

- Washing zone Since the sink is often used during food prep, it makes sense to place it in between the fridge and the cooking area. It will make rinsing veggies and draining pasta that much easier. And with cabinets nearby for your dinnerware and cutlery, putting the dishes away is a little more convenient.
- The difference in a kitchen. Keep in mind that storage includes both a place for dry goods and the refrigerator, and that it's always helpful to have a bit of counter space next to them for packing away groceries.

Common layouts

Straight-line kitchen

No triangle here. That's because the workflow is in a straight line. This layout is best for small- to medium-sized homes with a narrow kitchen.

Straight-line with island

Ideal for a larger kitchen, where more than one person is doing the cooking, this layout includes an island, which is great for extra workspace, storage and socialising.

L-shaped kitchen

One of the most common layouts, the L-shaped kitchen is ideal when you want to add a small dining table or a kitchen island.

U-shaped kitchen

If you have a large room, the U-shaped layout is ideal. It gives you maximum space and plenty of storage options, ensuring that everything is within easy reach.

Parallel kitchen

Geared towards food preparation, this layout gives you two good work and storage areas on opposite sides.
Conveniently, it doesn't require a lot of space.

Handy Hints

- Plan sufficient workspace around the cooktop and sink.
- Consider fully-extendable drawers to get a clear overview and access to your kitchen gadgets and food items. Organise and customise drawers by adding cutlery trays, dividers and boxes.
- Consider extra tall cabinets, corner cabinets, open shelving units, hanging rails and hooks to maximise the storage in your kitchen.
- Improve the functionality of your kitchen by adding lighting above your bench space. You can also enhance the ambience by installing spotlights on your cabinets and behind glass door cabinets.

Need an extra hand? We can help plan your kitchen.

Measure your space

- 1. First, start by measuring from floor to ceiling, from wall to wall, and from the corners to the doors.
- 2. Next, measure the size of your windows and doors, and the distance of each to the floor, ceiling and corners. Don't forget to mark the amount of space that doors and windows need to open.
- 3. Lastly, mark the placement of all existing services eg. electrical, gas and water connections. Need help see p. 25.

Appliances

When we developed our appliances we thought about your everyday life in the kitchen and how we can make it easier.

When you're buying a kitchen, first consider what type of cook you are – an ambitious amateur or a pasta pro – and how often you cook. Then it will be easier to decide which cheffriendly functions match your cooking needs – from quick heat microwave ovens and ovens with pizza functions to gas and glass ceramic hobs.

Our built-in appliances are also designed to match and fit IKEA kitchens to make the look just as smooth as the function. And they're durable too, which is why we include a 2-year guarantee in the low price. That way you can enjoy your kitchen every day, for years to come.
