The Hero with a Thousand Faces

Third Edition

Joseph Campbell

- A newly redesigned edition of Joseph Campbell's seminal work on comparative mythology
- The latest title in the Collected Works of Joseph Campbell series (over 140,000 copies sold combined)
- Includes updated and expanded notes, enhanced illustrations, and 60 new illustrations
- Millions of copies sold of earlier editions

Since its release in 1949, Joseph Campbell's classic The Hero with a Thousand Faces has influenced millions of readers by combining the insights of modern psychology with Campbell's revolutionary understanding of comparative mythology. In its pages, Campbell outlines the Hero's Journey, a universal motif of adventure that runs through all of the world's mythic traditions, evident in the stories of such "heroes" as Buddha, Moses, Jesus, and Jason of the Argonauts.

As relevant today as when it was first published, Hero continues to find new audiences among students and professors in fields ranging from anthropology and the history of religion to literature and film studies. The book has also profoundly influenced creative artists, including authors, songwriters, game designers, and filmmakers — George Lucas cites it as the inspiration for Star Wars — and continues to inspire all those interested in the inherent human need to tell stories.

Praise for The Hero with a Thousand Faces

“I have returned to no other book more often since leaving college than this one, and every time I discover new insight into the human journey. Every generation will find in Hero wisdom for the ages.”

— BILL MOYERS

“In the three decades since I discovered The Hero with a Thousand Faces, it has continued to fascinate and inspire me. Joseph Campbell peers through centuries and shows us that we are all connected by a basic need to hear stories and understand ourselves. As a book, it is wonderful to read; as illumination into the human condition, it is a revelation.”

— GEORGE LUCAS

“Campbell’s words carry extraordinary weight, not only among scholars but among a wide range of other people who find his search down mythological pathways relevant to their lives today. . . . The book for which he is most famous, The Hero with a Thousand Faces [is] a brilliant examination, through ancient hero myths, of man’s eternal struggle for identity.”

Saying Goodbye to Your Angel Animals

Finding Comfort After Losing Your Pet

Allen & Linda Anderson

“As a veterinary medical correspondent and lifetime pet lover, I believe in both the power of pets and the power of stories to heal. This book . . . offers a wide range of healing activities, wise information, compassionate reflection, and practical help for honoring and memorializing the life of your pet.”

— DR. MARTY BECKER, resident veterinarian on ABC’s Good Morning America and author of Chicken Soup for the Pet Lover’s Soul

- Includes memorials, celebrations, and meditations
- By the authors of Angel Horses, Angel Cats, Angel Dogs, and Angel Animals (nearly 150,000 copies sold combined)

In this thoughtful book, longtime animal lovers Allen and Linda Anderson walk readers through the numbing pain and dreadful sense of loss when a beloved animal dies. They guide readers in planning an appropriate memorial service and offer scripts for ceremonies based on different spiritual traditions that mourners can read at a service. The book also explores the concept of after-death experiences of the departed companion animal and relates many beautiful stories that reinforce the love and sense of peace that come from acknowledging the place animals hold in our lives.

Beyond Knowing

Mysteries & Messages of Death & Life from a Forensic Pathologist

First Trade Paperback Edition

Janis Amatuzio, MD

“Beyond Knowing is a book of real-life mystery stories beautifully written by a physician trained in the hard science of forensic pathology. I recommend it to anyone who has ever wondered if science has defined Life too narrowly and asked themselves ‘What if...?’ I simply love this book.”

— RACHEL NAOMI REMEN, MD, author of Kitchen Table Wisdom

- From the “compassionate coroner,” inspiring true stories to comfort the grieving
- By the author of Forever Ours (over 60,000 copies sold)

In Beyond Knowing, forensic pathologist Janis Amatuzio carries on the tradition of her first book, Forever Ours, presenting stories of the amazing connections between the dying and their loved ones, exploring the realms of visions, synchronicities, and communications on death’s threshold. Dr. Amatuzio began gathering these stories early in her career as a forensic pathologist and coroner in Minnesota. Here she emphasizes that these experiences are life-changing moments for the living, making their time on earth more satisfying and helping them focus on the important things in life.

Dr. Amatuzio relates the story of the man who “meets” his kidney donor and sends a message to the donor’s family; of a woman who hears her husband’s song on the radio and experiences the sensation of dancing with him again; of a sick dog who helps an elderly grandmother recover from a hip fracture and who finds a way to sleep beside her one last time; of Monarch butterflies who attend the funeral of a young girl who loved them; and of many other profound occurrences. Beyond Knowing’s extraordinary tales of connections beyond death offer healing and guidance as well as a reminder that there is more to human life than we can fully explain. Told with grace and calm, these life-affirming stories remind readers how important it is to demonstrate love while we can.

JANIS AMATUZIO, MD, is an international authority in forensic medicine and the founder of Midwest Forensic Pathology, P.A. She lives in Minneapolis.

Solitude

*Seeking Wisdom in Extremes —
A Year Alone in the Patagonia Wilderness*

Robert Kull

“This is an amazing story.”

— THOMAS MOORE, author of Care of the Soul

- The remarkable true story of an adventurer who spends a year alone in the Patagonia wilderness
- A compelling combination of adventure travelogue, nature writing, and spiritual inquiry

Years after a motorcycle accident left him with one leg, Robert Kull traveled to a remote island in the Patagonia wilderness with supplies to live alone for a year. He sought to explore the effects of deep solitude on the body and mind and to find answers to the spiritual questions that had plagued him his entire life. With only a cat and his thoughts as companions, he wrestled with inner storms while the wild forces of nature raged around him. The physical challenges were immense, but the struggles of mind and spirit pushed him to the limits of human endurance.

Solitude: Seeking Wisdom in Extremes is a diary of Kull's tumultuous year. Filled with the details of a life distilled to its unadulterated essence — the struggle of staying alive with no outside help — Solitude is also a meditation on the tensions between nature and technology, isolation and society. Kull went into solitude fishing for enlightenment, seeking The Answer. He discovered that life itself teaches us all we need to know — once we cultivate the awareness to truly listen.

ROBERT KULL has worked as a scuba instructor, wilderness guide, construction worker, dishwasher, truck driver, bartender, painter, firefighter, and professor. He lives in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The Hidden Spirituality of Men

Ten Metaphors to Awaken the Sacred Masculine

Matthew Fox

“Matthew Fox might well be the most creative, the most comprehensive, surely the most challenging religious-spiritual teacher in America.”

— THOMAS BERRY, author of The Great Work and The Dream of the Earth

- From maverick theologian Matthew Fox, ten archetypes to help men find their hidden spirituality
- By the author of Original Blessing (over 300,000 copies sold)

It’s no secret that men are in trouble today. War rages from Iraq to Sri Lanka, from Lebanon to Sudan. At the same time, the rest of creation is dying at our hands and right before our eyes. And young men are disappearing almost as fast as the other species. What can we do about a sick masculinity out of control?

Many men, especially young men, are looking for images of healthy masculinity to emulate. But according to Matthew Fox, today’s culture rewards reptilian behaviors like domination and aggression and represses men’s natural desire for spirituality. Open discussion and promotion of healthy male spirituality run counter to our cultural goals and ideals. Fox contends that our crucial task is to open our minds to a deeper understanding of the healthy masculine than we receive from our media, culture, and religions. To help readers develop what he calls “the sacred masculine,” Fox offers here ten compelling metaphors and archetypes, ranging from the Green Man to the multigenerational Grandfatherly Heart. He also includes models of sacred marriage, showing how partnership becomes the ultimate expression of healthy masculinity.

A member of the Dominican order for thirty-four years, MATTHEW FOX is a popular lecturer, teacher, and author. He lives in Oakland, California.

Angel Dogs with a Mission

Divine Messengers in Service to All Life

Allen & Linda Anderson

Foreword by Marc Bekoff

Praise for Angel Dogs:

“Dog lovers will be moved by these stories and find their faith in their pets’ heavenly nature affirmed.”

— PUBLISHERS WEEKLY

- Dramatic, true stories of the extraordinary achievements of working dogs
- By the authors of Angel Horses, Angel Cats, Angel Dogs, and Angel Animals (nearly 150,000 copies sold combined)

This engaging book expands the successful Angel Animals series to include stories about working dogs — those heroic canines who have found ways to give back more than sloppy kisses and happy snuggles to the people around them. Although many of these dogs were once abandoned or abused, they discover their life’s work assisting humans and other dogs. They include Keno, an avalanche-rescue dog who saves lives in Canada; Midge, the littlest police dog in the world; Zoom, a Cardigan Welsh corgi who helps special-needs children improve their reading scores; and Scooby Doo, a Great Dane who saves his family from a burning home.

The stories demonstrate again and again how dogs act in selfless, helpful ways and will go out of their way to assist the humans in their lives. Whether they are visiting ailing elders at care facilities, sniffing cancer before it can be diagnosed any other way, leading the blind, or assisting trauma surgeons in Iraq, these animals go beyond the call of duty. Poignant, funny, and devastating, the stories of these heroic dogs will entertain readers while they also challenge and inspire.

ALLEN AND LINDA ANDERSON are the founders of the Angel Animals Network, inspirational speakers, and the authors of many popular books, including Angel Animals. They live in Minneapolis. The author of The Emotional Lives of Animals, MARC BEKOFF is a professor emeritus of ecology and evolutionary biology at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Dressage in the Fourth Dimension

Second Edition

Sherry Ackerman

Foreword by Linda Kohanov

“[This book] represents an incredible act of courage and vision.”

— LINDA KOHANOV, author of The Tao of Equus

“Enlightening, educational, and self-reflecting . . . a must-read.”

— PAMELA AU, author of Zen and the Horse

- A powerful meditation on the spiritual aspects of dressage and horseback riding

Dressage is often seen as the most formal and controlled of the equine sports, following an ancient, standardized training progression. For philosophy professor and dressage instructor Sherry Ackerman, dressage is a transformational art, an avenue for reflection, exploration, and self-knowledge through which a rider can experience liberation from the narrowly individual, egoistic self. This second, revised edition of Dressage in the Fourth Dimension is a pioneer work in awakening “dressage consciousness.” It requires readers to deconstruct every assumption they have ever held about riding — to ask “Why?” and to become okay with not knowing.

Drawing on such diverse sources as geometry, ancient

Western and Eastern philosophies, and spirituality, Ackerman seeks to heal humanity’s alienation from nature through riding and dressage. She points readers toward liberation from societal conditioning, from externally legislated morality and normative thinking, and ultimately from their own egos. Her concept of the Fourth Dimension requires the reader to leave the analytic, objective mind behind and enter into the mystery of inspiration. A short, unique, and enigmatic work that has enjoyed a word-of-mouth reputation among horse people for years yet has also been unavailable, Dressage in the Fourth Dimension will challenge riders’ assumptions about their horses and themselves.

SHERRY ACKERMAN is a professor of philosophy at College of the Siskiyous and an internationally known dressage clinician. She lives in Mount Shasta, California. LINDA KOHANOV is the author of the popular The Tao of Equus. She lives near Tucson, Arizona.

“This book will bring you joy, success, and fulfillment.”

— DEEPAK CHOPRA

“Soul Currency eloquently teaches you how to manifest the earnings that you desire and deserve.”

— MARK VICTOR HANSEN, cocreator of Chicken Soup for the Soul

- A successful international banker and entrepreneur shows how to achieve prosperity and purpose by “banking” on spiritual assets
- 40 percent of Americans have expressed a desire to become entrepreneurs

Ernest Chu believes that our spiritual assets, though largely untapped, are our most powerful resource. Soul Currency explains how to discover, nurture, and use these valuable assets for personal and professional fulfillment. One of the book’s driving concepts is “adventureprise,” the idea of spirit working through enlightened entrepreneurs to guide them to create a satisfying, successful business. Also important, according to Chu, is for would-be entrepreneurs to set up a network of “share holders,” people who will support their efforts and cheer their successes. Chu demonstrates that working with the “currency” of the soul can be just as important to success in the business world as using legal tender, and that only by establishing a clear sense of what is most important in their lives can people discover the prosperity they desire.

Chu also shares his personal story of taking on millions in debt to avoid filing for bankruptcy when his start-up business failed. Expecting to work his entire life to pay back the debt, Chu followed his own advice and was able to pay it back in a few short years. Using real-world examples and practical exercises, Chu helps readers hear their soul’s passion, seek what fulfills them and serves others, and create a prosperous flow of loving energy — soul currency.

ERNEST D. CHU has advised some of America’s best-managed companies and directly funded nearly one hundred emerging growth companies. An assistant pastor at Religious Science Ft. Lauderdale, he lives in Deerfield Beach, Florida.

The Forgotten Horses

Photographs by Tony Stromberg
Foreword by Robert Redford

Praise for Tony Stromberg's Spirit Horses:

“Through a masterful blend of realism and mysticism, Tony Stromberg’s images give us a compelling glimpse into the secret life of horses.”

— LINDA KOHANOV, author of The Tao of Equus

“This lovely book will more than please horse lovers.”

— BOOKLIST

- A renowned photographer showcases rescued horses in North American sanctuaries
- By the photographer of Spirit Horses (20,000 copies sold)

When many horses outlive their usefulness to humans, they are treated as disposable — auctioned off and sent to the slaughterhouse. But thanks to the work of rescue organizations and horse sanctuaries, many of these formerly unwanted horses are enjoying genuine appreciation and newfound freedom. The horses in this book were abused, neglected, abandoned, rejected. They are lame, old, blind, or just unattractive according to modern notions of beauty. Some are crossbreeds with no clearly defined bloodline. Others are wild horses forced off public lands. These are horses enjoying a second chance to live a meaningful and dignified life. They are here to teach us different measures of value, measures we have almost forgotten.

To document these remarkable creatures, acclaimed equine photographer Tony Stromberg traveled to sanctuaries across North America. While many horse books focus on exotic, flashy breeds or famous thoroughbreds, Tony chose to capture the soul of “working-class” equines — many enjoying love and freedom for the first time. Through gorgeous photography, The Forgotten Horses reveals the profound spirit of these amazing animals and honors the people and sanctuaries that have offered them a well-deserved home.

TONY STROMBERG is a former top commercial photographer who conducts workshops on photographing horses and travels throughout the western United States and Europe photographing wild horses. He lives in New Mexico. Legendary actor and filmmaker ROBERT REDFORD lives in Sundance, Utah.

Why Walk When You Can Fly?

How to Soar beyond Your Fears and Embrace Your Full Potential

Isha

“We were all made to fly, yet we sit on our branches, clinging to the things that are familiar to us.”

— from the book

- A rising spiritual teacher offers four simple keys for personal transformation
- Tens of thousands of people worldwide have taken Isha’s life-changing seminars

Why Walk When You Can Fly? uses parables, moving stories, and humor to impart essential truths and help readers find happiness, fulfillment, and peace. At the heart of the Isha System are four “keys” — simple, powerful statements that can radically transform readers’ lives. Using the keys involves repeating them to oneself over and over, with a pause between repetitions. As readers practice the keys, they begin to notice profound changes taking place in their lives and an abiding sense of well-being.

The first key involves embracing the present moment; Isha explores the many habits of mind that enforce separation and lead to suffering and introduces this simple key as the main tool for overcoming these habits. Second is accepting what is, without judgment; third is loving oneself and others unconditionally; and fourth is being one with the universe. Isha offers gentle, persuasive guidance, while her practical strategies show how to incorporate the four keys into even the most hectic schedules.

ISHA is a spiritual teacher and the founder of the Isha Foundation Educating for Peace and the “La I” retreat center and spa in Uruguay. She travels throughout the world teaching diverse groups ranging from prisoners to disabled people to troubled youths. A native of Australia, she lives in Uruguay.

New World Library Audio

“With brilliance and clarity, Gay Hendricks shares this inspirational story from the heart. Five Wishes can help anyone find the power within to change their life.”

— JOHN GRAY, PHD, author of Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus

- A bestselling guide to turning wishes into reality, now on CD

A cocktail party conversation changed Gay Hendricks’s life forever. A stranger asked him to imagine himself on his deathbed, pondering the question “Was my life a complete success?” If it wasn’t, the stranger asked, “What would be the things you’d wish had happened that would have made it a success?” From there, Hendricks created a list of five wishes, turning them into powerful affirmations that have guided his life since. Over the years, he made those wishes come true. Here, he passes the gift he received on to others. The result is a simple process that anyone can use to find wealth, wisdom, and a joyful, fulfilled life.
