Marianne Williamson tells us that what we have called “middle age” need not be seen as a turning point toward death. Midlife is not a crisis; it’s a time of rebirth. It’s not a time to accept your death; it’s a time to accept your life—and to finally, truly live it, as you and you alone know deep in your heart it was meant to be lived.

The Science of Miracles and the Power of Grace

CONFERENCE DETAILS

A growing body of scientific evidence is leading to an inescapable conclusion: that everything from the healing of our bodies to the success of our careers and relationships, and even the peace of our world, is based upon the language of a simple code—a heart-based code—that we may learn and upgrade by choice. To tap into the force of this code, we must understand how it works and speak the language that it recognizes.

Our ancestors used miracles to do just that. Today we use science. Cheryl Richardson and Gregg Braden invite you to join them as they bridge science and spirituality to offer us both—the practical miracles that open the door to a powerful new way of seeing the world, and the science that tells us how to experience them in our own lives!

Buddha Meditation Cards

A part of the Hay House Meditation Collection, this is a limited-edition set of beautifully illustrated cards inspired by the Buddha and his teachings. Using a rich palette of colors, the exquisite portraits of the Buddha have a contemporary aesthetic, yet evoke the traditional wisdom of Buddhist thought. Inside each card on the lower left side is a quote by the Buddha specially chosen as a thought upon which to meditate; the rest of the card is blank. Whether given individually or as a set of 10 cards and envelopes, the Buddha Meditation Cards make a perfect gift.

Buddha Flowers

In Buddha Flowers, the Buddha is rendered in the Dharmachakra Mudra, a Buddhist hand pose that symbolizes the role of the teacher and typically represents the turning of the wheel of the Dharma.
