In the beginning God created the sky and the earth. There was no light. Darkness covered the deep, and the Spirit of God hovered over the water.

Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, so he divided the light from the darkness. He called the light "day" and the darkness "night." Evening came, and morning came, and the first day was over.

"Then God said, "Let the earth produce plants—some to make grain for seeds and others to make fruits with seeds in them. Every seed will produce more of its own kind of plant." And it happened. "The earth produced plants with grain for seeds and trees that made fruits with seeds in them. Each seed grew its own kind of plant. God saw that all this was good. "Evening passed, and morning came. "So God created the sky and the earth, and all the animals that live on the earth, and all the animals that live in the sea, and all the plants that grow on the earth. And God saw that everything was very good."

BIBLES TO GIVE AWAY

Nelson's Million Bible Challenge -

Thomas Nelson proposes a challenge that would put a Bible in the hands of one million people. One million people who have never heard or read God's Word in communities across the country!

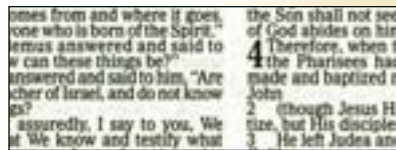

We're calling this mission, "Nelson's Million Bible Challenge," and it only works if we all work together. Skip lunch for a day, and give five Bibles away to five different people. These people might be friends, family, coworkers, or even people you don't know – like the teen at the drive-through, the lady at the dry cleaners, or the checker at the grocery store. We can impact our communities like never before and fulfill the mission of putting the Word of God into the hands of people everywhere. Visit www.millionbiblechallenge.com to read more about Nelson's Million Bible Challenge!

DOMINO EFFECT

DVD-based experience featuring six 20-minute episodes in each series, as well as a leaders guide, 1-Audio, and 6-Dominos.

The creative conspiracy of deep personal friendship and an insatiable desire to learn makes Wayfarer a different kind of team. This group melds practical theology with media technology to design collisions that awaken lives to rediscover Christ.

CHRIS BROOKS paints a dangerously compassionate picture of the gospel with a poetic style that tears at the heart.

CHAD NORRIS courageously confronts prepackaged Christianity by inspiring people toward uncomfortable intimacy with God.

DAVE RHODES is refreshingly necessary as he articulates pictures of God and life that release the imagination.

JOHN ELDREDGE

Life is a story. This is true for every soul. It is a love story. But it is set in the midst of a life and death battle. That is why it seems so hard. The story of your life is the story of the journey of your heart through a dangerous and beautiful world. It is the story of the long and sustained assault on your heart by the Enemy who knows who you could be and fears you. But it is also the story of the long and mysterious pursuit of your heart by the God who knows you truly and loves you deeply. As we live through the pages of this story, many questions arise. Who am I...really? Where will I find life...really? And What is it that God wants from me? —from www.ransomedheart.org

JOHN ELDREDGE is the founder and director of Ransomed Heart™ Ministries in Colorado Springs, Colorado, a fellowship devoted to helping people recover and live from their heart.

HOW TO BUILD A BIBLE STUDY LIBRARY

Nine Must-Haves for Customers Who Want to Go Deeper

Your customers believe the Bible is the inspired Word of God. They want to get more out of their Bible study. But many of them don't know how. They're going to come to you, their Christian retailer, for guidance. Do you know how to help your customers build a basic Bible study library? You need to be able to narrow their options down to a few basics that are manageable and yet comprehensive. Here's what every student of the Bible needs:

1 A Good, Readable Version of the Bible

You're not going to get very far in your Bible study if you don't have a version that you find readable and approachable.

2 A Topical Bible

If you're studying a passage, a Topical Bible can provide you with a whole Bible context for that concept.

3 A Bible Dictionary

A Bible dictionary rounds out your understanding of a concept that you may have thought you already had a handle on.

4 Vine's Word Study Dictionary

Vine's Dictionary is the key resource for in-depth word studies by allowing you to focus on what the original Greek or Hebrew word means.

5

Commentaries

Commentaries go into varying levels of detail, but often a commentary will introduce you to an idea that provides those “aha” moments.

8

A “Manners and Customs” Book

If a handbook gives you the big picture, a Manners and Customs book drills all the way down to the smallest detail.

6

A Concordance

A concordance is simply a complete list of every word that appears in the Bible, listing where and how many times each word appears. A Strong’s concordance shows the Greek or Hebrew word.

9

Bible Studies

A personal Bible study book is going to guide you in applying the truths of the story - for instance, what does Abraham’s example of commitment and obedience mean in your life?

7

A Bible Handbook

Think of a Bible handbook as the jacket copy for a book of the Bible.

The Bible is a big book. It can be intimidating. But as a Christian retailer, you have good news for both the seekers and lifelong Christians who come into your store. There are plenty of great resources right there on your store shelves, and it really doesn’t take all that many of them to build a serviceable study library. Master this category, and you will create lifetime customers by leading them on the road to a deeper understanding of the truths of God’s Word.

FUNDRAISING

FUNDING PRINCIPLES THAT EMPOWER MINISTRY: LESSONS DRAWN FROM EQUIP

Pastors do not enter the ministry because they like to ask for money, but most discover quickly that fundraising is essential if their ministry is going to succeed. In this book, Doug Carter shows how to teach givers to participate in ministry with their gifts and offerings. Using examples from EQUIP and from EQUIP partners who have successfully used these principles in their churches and ministries, Doug shows the reader how to build relationships into stewardship and then create partnerships for ministry.

In his foreword to Raising More Than Money, Dr. John C. Maxwell says, “Doug’s vocation in the realm of development has focused more on teaching givers to reflect the giving nature of Christ than about raising money. I’m confident that if you embrace the principles that Doug shares, it will impact your life now and throughout eternity.”

SPECIAL FEATURES

- Drawn from the experience-base of EQUIP
- Communicates a theology of generosity to churches or ministries
- Helps establish policies for giving

DOUG M. CARTER has served as Senior Vice President of Public Affairs at EQUIP since 1996. As SVP, Doug represents EQUIP in churches and conferences across America, and teaches at EQUIP leadership conferences around the world. Prior to joining EQUIP, he served as Vice President of World Gospel Mission, an interdenominational mission agency with 330 career missionaries sharing the gospel in twenty-four nations. He and his wife, Winnie, have more than 16 years of missionary experience serving Native Americans. Doug also spent nine years as president of Circleville Bible College, helping prepare men and women for Christian service, and is the author of Big Picture People (Beacon Hill Press).

APOLOGETICS

Whether debating Marxists, college professors, or Islamic apologists, Josh McDowell's hallmark has always been to walk boldly into enemy territory and speak truth. This book is based on the expectation that, with a growing number of adults becoming increasingly skeptical toward Christianity, there is a need for a solid body of persuasive evidence to be presented to them. This is a sourcebook for doubting seekers as well as current believers who need persuasive information to share with friends. Evidence for Christianity is McDowell's compelling answer to the hard questions so many Christians are afraid to discuss.

ETHICS

This book provides a comprehensive introduction to Christian ethics, suitable for individual study or textbook use in a Bible college or seminary. The first four chapters survey of the field of Christian ethics before focusing on specific issues. Eighteen chapters confront all of the issues faced by believers today, including a discussion of racial issues that goes beyond black and white, business ethics on this side of Enron, and war and international relations in light of today's headlines.

EXEGESIS

"This is a remarkably comprehensive study of the whole area of biblical interpretation. No other volume available on biblical interpretation does so much so well."

-Douglas Stuart, Professor of Old Testament, Gordon-Conwell Seminary

"Introduction to Biblical Interpretation will fill a gap that has been in need of filling for many years."

-Craig A. Evans, Payzant Distinguished Professor of New Testament, Acadia Divinity College

The Bible includes a mixture of literary genres, written by dozens of people widely separated by distance and time. For centuries the Christian and Judaic Scriptures have taxed the skills of even the most capable readers. Now Drs. Klein, Blomberg, and Hubbard have created the most comprehensive textbook on hermeneutics, reflecting the very latest scholarship. This unique volume gives concise, logical, and practical guidelines for discovering the truth of God's Word.

"At its core we believe the Bible to be God's written revelation to His people," the authors affirm. "It records in human words what God desires."

This text will help you become the best Bible expositor you can be!

DR. WILLIAM W. KLEIN, both edited and contributed to this volume. He is Professor of New Testament at Denver Seminary. He previously wrote The New Chosen People: A Corporate View of Election.

DR. CRAIG L. BLOMBERG is Distinguished Professor of New Testament. His previous books include The Historical Reliability of the Gospels and Interpreting the Parables.

CHURCH HISTORY

Nearly twenty-five percent of the world's Christians count themselves among the Charismatic and Pentecostal family of Christian Movements, yet few know how Pentecostalism began. The Azusa Street Mission and Revival tells the story of the small racially-inclusive group that gathered in Los Angeles in 1906 and changed the world of Christianity. With little more than a printing press, a trolley stop and a powerful message, the revival that began at Apostolic Faith Mission on Azusa Street, rapidly crossed more than race lines—into Mexico, Western Europe, Scandinavia and West Africa—and began to change the landscape of Christianity. The complete story of the Mission has finally been recorded, with photographs, articles and testimonies.

CECIL M. "MEL" ROBECK, JR., PH.D. is Professor of Church History and Ecumenics and Director of the David J. DuPlessis Center for Christian Spirituality, FullerTheological Seminary.

It's about time that someone wrote church history that tells about people, not just about "eras" and "ages." Church History in Plain Language taps the roots of our Christian family tree. It combines authoritative research with a captivating style to bring our heritage home to us.

DR. BRUCE SHELLEY is Senior Professor of Church History and Historical Theology at Denver Theological Seminary. He holds the M.Div. degree from Fuller Theological Seminary and Ph.D. from the University of Iowa. Among his previous publications are The Church: God's People; Evangelicalism in America; and The Cross and the Flame.
