SIMPLY MEXICAN

BY LOURDES CASTRO

A solid, accessible introduction to Mexican cooking featuring 60 easy and authentic recipes for quick-to-the-table meals.

- Each recipe features “Cooking Notes” that highlight equipment, ingredients, techniques, and instructions for advance preparation for no-fuss weeknight cooking.
- Lourdes Castro has been personal chef and nutritionist to Spanish TV star Cristina Saralegui and NBA star Alonzo Mourning.

In SIMPLY MEXICAN, Castro presents authentic Mexican recipes that don’t require a fortnight to prepare or extra shopping forays to find rare ingredients. A prodigious traveler who has taught students from all over the Americas, Castro honed her knowledge of fundamental south-of-the-border meals by teaching adult and children’s cooking classes at her Ars Magirica Cooking School. Featuring easy, fun-to-eat, big flavor favorites, such as Chicken Enchiladas with Tomatillo Sauce or Crab Tostadas, Castro’s straightforward recipes are a godsend to busy parents. Once home cooks have mastered the basics, Castro helps them tackle more advanced Mexican mainstays, such as mole and adobo, and provides the most effortless tamale recipe around. SIMPLY MEXICAN helps every cook make favorite Mexican recipes at home in a snap.

“With this book Lourdes Castro has added a spark of creativity and simplicity to Mexican food that up until now had not yet been realized. It gives me a huge sense of pride and honor to know that this book exists, as it will help a large audience recreate these gems in a simple and straightforward way.”

—Aarón Sánchez, chef/owner of Paladar, author of La Comida del Barrio, former cohost of Food Network’s Melting Pot

LOURDES CASTRO was born and raised in Miami, where she founded the Ars Magirica Cooking School. A former associate of the James Beard Foundation, she is a regular contributor to the New York Social Diary’s dining section and has taught in the food studies departments at Johnson & Wales University. Castro currently teaches food science at New York University and is the director of the Culinary Academy at the Biltmore Hotel in Coral Gables, Florida. She lives in New York.

RUSTIC FRUIT DESSERTS

Crumbles, Buckles, Cobblers, Pandowdies, and More

BY CORY SCHREIBER AND JULIE RICHARDSON

A collection of simple and satisfying recipes for crisps, slumps, buckles, grunts, and other old-timey desserts by a beloved Portland bakery owner in collaboration with one of the region's top chefs.

- Rustic fruit desserts have broad appeal and come together easily—even for inexperienced bakers.
- Recipes are grouped by season and showcase local fruit.

CORY SCHREIBER founded Wildwood Restaurant and won the James Beard Award for Best Chef: Pacific Northwest. Schreiber now works as the Farm-to-School Food Coordinator with the Oregon Department of Agriculture and continues to write, consult, and teach cooking classes in Portland, Oregon.

JULIE RICHARDSON grew up enjoying the flavors that define the seasons of her Vermont childhood. After graduating from the Culinary Institute of America, she founded the small-batch bakery Baker & Spice, which evolved from her stands at the Portland and Hillsdale farmer's markets. She lives in Portland, Oregon.

An early fall cobbler with blackberries bubbling in their juice beneath a golden cream biscuit. A crunchy oatmeal crisp made with mid-summer's sweet nectarines and raspberries. Or a comforting pear bread pudding made with brioche to soften a harsh winter's day. In RUSTIC FRUIT DESSERTS, James Beard Award-winning chef Cory Schreiber and Julie Richardson, owner of Baker & Spice, share their repertoire of classic fruit desserts, including crumbles, crisps, Betty's, buckles, and pies that showcases the freshest in-season fruit available. Simple, scrumptious, and always a cherished favorite, these heritage desserts are (thankfully) experiencing a long-due revival.
