WELCOME TO OUR LATEST 11+ SELECT CATALOGUE

This catalogue contains some of our newest and most popular resources for language learners from early secondary to A-level and beyond. Everything here is distributed by European Schoolbooks Ltd (ESB) and is available at our European Bookshop (EB) and Italian Bookshop (IB) in London. Orders can be placed online, by post, phone, email or fax to both our Cheltenham and London offices.

PRICES

Prices are correct at 01.10.2010 but may be changed without notice if affected by publishers' increases or exchange rate movements. + after a price indicates that VAT must be added.

USING THIS CATALOGUE

Age ranges and descriptions are as accurate as we can make them but are only a guide: for further advice on any product please contact the marketing department at ESB head office in Cheltenham.

INSPECTION COPIES FOR TEACHERS

You can get an inspection copy of any textbook (sorry, not audio-visual materials) you are thinking of buying in class sets. If you then buy 12+ copies of textbooks direct from ESB, EB or the IB, you may be entitled to a discount. Please ask for details.

In addition to inspection copies we offer a range of other services to the language teaching community. If you are organising a teachers' meeting, a language day or any other kind of languages promotion, we can attend ourselves or send an appropriate boxed selection of relevant books and materials. With suitable notice we can arrange presentations and workshops.

For more information please contact our marketing department on 01242 245252.

CLASSROOM COURSES

AGES 11-14

AMIS ET COMPAGNIE

CLE

Amis et compagnie is an innovative course that reinforces the four main skills as important tools for communication. This course is perfect for those pre-teenagers who have already touched on the basics of the French language at primary level. The course is available in four levels, gradually taking students up to grade B1 of the CEFR. This course provides a range of varied exercises (including many designed to develop intercultural understanding and also prepare students for DELF examinations) which are clearly laid out and easy to follow. A unique aspect of this course is that each level introduces students to a French literary classic in the form of a manga-style cartoon which in level one is Les trois Mousquetaires. The Teacher's guide includes photocopiable materials and suggests ideas for activities to complement the course.

ET TOI?

DIDIER

Et toi is a course for teenagers which advocates task-based learning and thus encourages the student to be at the centre of the learning process. The course covers the four main skill areas, in line with the CEFR, using authentic language and situations relevant to the interests and learning styles of teenagers. The course focuses on autonomous learning and so self-assessment exercises feature throughout which help give students a thorough understanding of the objectives of the course and what they should hope to achieve through their study.

POURQUOI PAS!

DIFUSION

This secondary course is one of a new generation designed around the recommendations of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). It cannot be emphasised too strongly that the CEFR, which now forms the basis of language teaching and learning in most EU countries and an increasing number beyond, has become the 'de facto' standard for the assessment of language skills in commerce and academia for all but the simplest jobs.

At the centre of the CEFR and of this course, are task-based activities which put the pupil at the centre of the learning process. While the objectives set out in the coursebooks are familiar, the exercises and activities are very original and engrossing, and always make the pupil the leading actor in his/her own learning. The coursebooks are attractively illustrated with a mixture of photos and drawing in full colour throughout, and introduce cultural similarities and contrasts from the start.

Both coursebooks and workbooks include CDs for the pupils, so they are never without good models of the spoken language. The teacher's manuals are supplied as CD-Roms, to be printed as needed and, if required, adapted to the specific needs of the class.

Beginners

001240	Livre de l'élève & CD 1	£22.15
001241	Cahier d'exercices & CD 1	£12.95
001242	Guide pédagogique CD-Rom 1	£20.75+

This CD ROM offers a description of all the objectives covered in the student's and exercise book as well as a varied amount of printer friendly and photocopiable complementary resources. It also includes all the solutions and the transcriptions of the activities.

001250 DVD 1 £28.75+

This DVD aims to give an insight into the reality of life in France for teenagers. The chapters are all filmed in France and follow young adolescents in their class, with their friends, playing sport etc...

SAC À DOS

DIFUSION

Carefully designed to appeal to its target age group, Sac à dos invites students to be the driving force behind their learning. Its communicative, task-based approach incorporates themes and concerns relevant to the students and encourages them to talk and debate amongst themselves. Complete with a final project at the end of each chapter, 2 audio CDs and a grammatical review, this method takes the student on a journey to learn more than just a language.

SUPER MAX

HACHETTE

Super Max is an imaginative course for children and preadolescents. This vibrant course will keep students entertained as they follow the story of Max, who has just moved to Paris and finds himself in Mme Lafleur's class. He learns French very quickly and it is up to the students to discover why! This exciting course is filled with a variety of games, activities and projects, which will engage the student in a creative way and help to consolidate learning. Attention is paid to developing all four major skills, (reading, writing, listening, speaking) and grammar is introduced in an inductive way, using colour coding to help students memorise grammar rules and conjugation patterns. The teacher's guide can be downloaded free from the publisher's website.

ALTER EGO

HACHETTE

Alter ego is a four level course for 15+ beginners that puts the student at the centre of an active learning process. A variety of real-life situations are used to create interaction, leading to the acquisition of effective communicative skills. The authentic tasks included throughout the course require continuous and shared evaluation of the students' progress, and promote the other key objective of the course, namely autonomous development. Its texts and graphics have been chosen with imagination, to ignite a real interest in French society and the French-speaking world.

ALORS?

DIDIER

Alors? is an innovative course for adolescent and adult beginners. This course follows the guidelines set out by the CEFR and thus employs the latest skills-centred approach to language learning. Recognising that the various communicative skills each require their own strategies, the course treats each skill largely independently, making the strategy clear to the student. Skills are introduced by the following headings: Des conversations, De l'écoute, De la lecture, Des textes. Alors? is well-balanced course as it treats the French language not in isolation, but within the context of a modern French society open to many diverse cultures and languages.

ECHO (NOUVELLE ÉDITION)

CLE

Echo is a five level course which covers levels A1-B2 of the CEFR. It firmly adopts an active approach to language learning by presenting a wide range of authentic materials, supported by meaningful tasks, which require the student to be immediately engaged in the process of learning. This course encourages independent learning so there are self-evaluation exercises which help students identify their objectives and track their progress and the exercise book also contains 250 activities for students to work through at their own pace. An exciting addition to this updated version of the course is the digital copy of the student's book which can be used in conjunction with the Interactive Whiteboard (IWB). Furthermore, the first two levels are now accompanied by a DVD, and the remaining three with an audio CD in MP3 format, making this a complete, modern and practical course. For the teacher there are photocopiable evaluation charts which help measure students' oral and written work during each lesson.

LE NOUVEL ÉDITO

DIDIER

Le nouvel édito is a task-based course for older teenagers and adults who have already reached level B1 of the CEFR. The 10 thematic units develop the 4 main skill areas, with particular attention given to enriching vocabulary in order to improve writing and speaking. This updated version of the course now includes a DVD and audio CD, and these together with the varied range of authentic written materials, provide plenty of language exposure and practice. A strong aspect of this course are the Ateliers, (group projects) which feature at the end of each unit to enable newly acquired knowledge to be pooled and recapped by means of active participation and collaboration between students.

LATITUDES

DIDIER

Latitudes is a communicative course that is closely linked to the CEFR, and combines language teaching with socio-cultural aspects of life in France and the Francophone countries. The course has a fluid structure with the 'learning contract' clearly outlined at the start of each unit. This makes the student aware of their learning objectives and responsible for their own development. This emphasis on independent learning is further honed by the end of unit projects which are divided into stages, testing different skills, and allow the students to interact with each other and put into practice all that they have learnt through the course of the unit.

LE NOUVEAU TAXI!

HACHETTE

This revised edition of Taxi has taken into account the technological advances of recent years and is now a multimedia course, with the student's book containing a DVD and CD-Rom which can be projected onto the IWB. The course has a strong socio-cultural focus and therefore includes a rich selection of authentic materials, followed by tasks which require student interaction and use of everyday language. Each unit clearly identifies from the start its aims and subsequently how the students will then be able to use what they learn in real life scenarios, making this a practical, student-centred course.

ROND-POINT

DIFUSION

Rond-point is a course for adolescent and adult learners of French which encourages task-based learning. By taking this 'action perspective' it recognises that the student, as the person who must complete the tasks, is directly responsible for their own learning. In each chapter the student will bring together their skills and knowledge to complete an end of unit project. By utilising techniques to encourage communication, employing authentic audio material and ensuring that grammar is used in everyday contexts, Rond-Point endeavours to teach the real French language and offer a true sense of France itself. The Portfolio for levels A1-A2-B1, which complements levels 1 and 2, and the teachers guides are available as free downloads on our website.

SCÉNARIO

HACHETTE

The task-based approach of this course combines rigorous linguistic teaching with a virtual French world of characters and identities that are created through the scenarios. The motivating and clear teaching structure provides grounding in the 4 main skill areas through the use of authentic written and oral materials whilst also dedicating time to grammar, vocabulary and phonetics in the Pause langue boxes. The course prepares students for the DELF exams, and has evaluation and cultural sections.

TOUT VA BIEN !

CLE

Following the recommendations of the Common European framework, Tout va bien! puts the student at the centre of the learning process and encourages autonomous learning in the many revision sections and summaries at the end of each unit. The student's book is clearly divided into six units each comprising two lessons, and there are also six revision sections and three project based tasks. The unique Portfolio included in each student's book allows students to monitor their progress and test their abilities. The course favours authenticity of sources and situations, allowing students to familiarise themselves with different registers and discover aspects of francophone culture to complement their study of French.

VERSION ORIGINALE

DIFUSION/ESB

Version Originale is an exciting, bilingual course for adults and older teenagers with no prior knowledge of French. The average student can expect to comfortably achieve level A1 of the Common European Reference Framework for Languages (CEFR) within a typical 30-week course.

This course has a logical, gradual progression with the objectives of each unit set out clearly at the start, making it simple to use and follow for both teachers and students. What is new, and central to Version Originale, is the recommendation that learners become partners in an active social contract. This 'contract' between teacher and students, implicit or explicit, moves the focus of learning from the individual student to the group and the class, requiring cooperation by all its members, and taking advantage of whatever each member can contribute.

Version Originale is thus very much a student-centred course shown by the 'journal d'apprentissage' which encourages students to constantly reflect and record their progress and focus upon tangible goals to work towards. As the student's book comes with an audio CD and a DVD, there is also plenty of scope for students to practise and develop their linguistic skills in their own time.

CLE

Vocabulaire en action is a practical vocabulary handbook, which covers a variety of useful topics and puts the emphasis on the student being at the centre of the learning process. This series aims to equip students with the necessary tools to be able to communicate effectively, orally and in written form, in real-life situations. In order to do this, each unit follows a seven step plan which provides students with a clear structure and framework to follow: 'j'observe, j'analyse et j'explique, Je compare, Je pratique, Je passe à l'action, Je consulte mon mémento, Je m'évalue. A version of this for the IWB will be available in the coming months.

VOCABULAIRE EN DIALOGUES

CLE

Vocabulaire en dialogues is a book and CD pack that provides the learner with the chance to hear new words in authentic contexts. The chapters present a range of up-to-date themes (shopping, the time etc) and follow a clear structure: preparation for the dialogue followed by an explanation of the vocabulary used, and finally a range of activities related to the topic. There is a multilingual glossary available at the back of the book making this ideal for independent study.

VOCABULAIRE PROGRESSIF DU FRANÇAIS

CLE

This series of workbooks addresses the need of students to develop a solid foundation of vocabulary in the key areas of daily life. Using the double-page spread highly effectively, Vocabulaire progressif first presents, and then practises vocabulary - arranged in thematic units - with example sentences, dialogues and illustrations which increase in difficulty through each unit. A separate answer booklet makes the materials suitable for a range of learning situations, from traditional classroom to open-learning and self-study

CADRE COMMUN

CLE

This series is especially designed to meet the requirements of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, (the growing standard for assessment of language skills within Europe) and develop the linguistic skills it advocates. The workbooks use a systematic approach, concentrating on oral and written comprehension, production and interaction and there are a variety of interesting exercises for practice individually, with a partner or in groups. The layout of these books are colourful and easy to read, and the skill being practised is clearly highlighted making it simple to dip in and out of.

COMPÉTENCES

CLE

Devised as a follow-up to the recommendations of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, Compétences allows students to practise and develop the four major language skills either within a classroom environment or independently at home. These complementary resources are easy to use thanks to their clear structure; each book is divided into five units, dedicated to a topic area, which are in turn made up of three lessons which set out specific learning objectives related to an aspect of the topic. Each book contains a wealth of varying activities and exercises, which steadily increase in difficulty, and there is a useful self-evaluation page at the end of each unit to help students continually monitor their progress. Answers to all exercises are provided at the back of the book.

BESCHERELLE

HATIER

The Bescherelle Art de conjuguer has been an essential reference book for thousands of students of French for over 20 years. It now covers all known forms, and lists and classifies some 12,000 verbs. The English edition, also offered here, describes the same range of verbs, but contains explanatory notes in English and a complete French-English index. The L'orthographe pour tous deals with the snares and pitfalls of written French, while the Grammaire pour tous tackles general problems, traditional and modern terminology and how to recognise and analyse different constructions, etc. All the books in the series are designed for individual use by students and are very clearly laid out and thoroughly indexed.

DIFFICULTÉS EXPLIQUÉES DU FRANÇAIS...FOR ENGLISH SPEAKERS

CLE

This excellent publication is the result of 15 years research by the authors (who are also teachers) and tackles the real problems that English speakers face when learning French grammar. Not only does it analyse the errors that are often made but it offers useful suggestions for rules which can prevent students from repeating similar mistakes. The difficulties are explained clearly and simply and comparisons between English and French are often made in order to clarify explanations alongside the exercises used to support the points made.

GRAMMAIRE EN ACTION

CLE

Grammaire en action is a series of grammar workbooks which aim to put grammar into context, making learning more effective, by presenting students with a large variety of authentic material, to show how grammar is used in everyday scenarios. Following a similar seven-step pattern to Vocabulaire en action, the books are student-centred and therefore contain several, varying activities and exercises, culminating in an end of unit project, all which require the student to be actively involved in their learning. Each book comes with an audio CD, an answer booklet and supplementary self-assessment tests.

EASY READERS - FRENCH

ASCHEHOUG/ESB

Easy Readers have a long and honourable history spanning nearly 60 years. The brainchild of a small Danish publishing house in the darkest years of the Second World War, the series now comprises more than 170 titles in six languages. From the beginning it has brought together publishers and editors in different countries in a unique collaboration to make available to language students authentic literature in an approachable, yet unpatronising format. The choice of reading ranges from trusty classics to modern social drama, from comedy to detective stories. Each language is supervised by a specialist editor, whose brief is to simplify without losing the flavour of the original. Footnotes are used where needed; charming illustrations and uncramped pages make the challenge so much easier, and the achievement very satisfying.

QUESTIONS À LA CHAÎNE

ELI

This game consists of putting together a series of questions and answers. The players must find, in the shortest possible time, the answer to the question posed and in turn read out a question, giving rise to an entertaining chain of questions. It's possible to play with a pack of cards of an A2 or B1 level.
